The National Theater.

The National Theater, which was destroy ed by fire last winter, has been rebuilt and placed under the management of the same gentlemen, who last year and the year before gentlemen, who last year and the year before conducted the establishment with such ability as to receive for himself the encomiums of those whose correct tastes and refined judgments fully appreciated the efforts of Mr. Saville to please the public. For the coming season Manager Saville promises, and has energy as we get the very best talent in the engaged, some of the very best talent in the country.

The new building is commodious and admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended. We hope to see Mr. Saville sus-men were created equal" and were entitled to justice from the Government of which he is a subject. But to-day finds the fire of John Brown's energy in the battle for right diminished in but embers in the breast of those for whom it was kindled. Each man seeks to extinguish the fire in his brother's breast, so that his own little spark may twinkle, and having nothing to compare with appear like the sun. Each is so "jealous in honor, sudden and quick in quarrel, seeking the bubble reputation." Is it not remarkable that in our midst so great is the spirit of disunion, and so regardless are we that we have a cluse yet to fight for, that rapidly are we sinking into individual weakness in striving for individual strength, forgetting the philosophy of the "bundle of sticks." The cry was lately uttered, "Young men, to the front," by a noble young man; but it brought death upon his head, for the young men came to the front and against him.

I regard the life of John Brown as the soul-inspiring principle of all our a ts of elevation, yiz, education, political equality.

The Best Pathfinders.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Do my young Americans know who are the best pathfinders on the American continent, the great original pathfinders of the West? I'll tell you: They are the buffaday of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight bundred and seville. Senty three, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

Sufferers from Scrotula and Scrofulous affections, clean up! Why wear your pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores? Why have the life twisted out of you by Dyspepsia, Rhematism and Gout? Why suffer Syphilitie and Mercutal diseases to rot the bones in your body, or the flesh off your bones? Why let your sluggish blood drag, and scatter its distempers through your veins? Ayer's Com. Ex't of Sarsaparilla cures these complaints, and cleanest them out of the system. Use it faithfully, and you bring to society a healthier, cleaner, and a far more acceptable member.

I regard the life of John Brown as the solubings with it the occassion for the renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unmarbered mercies which He has bestowed apen us.

Abondant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Prugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and as merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dread full civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouches fed, it becomes us as people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and and contractively and the prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the peeple meet in their respective places of final civil, strife.
